RULE 10.5 POLICY CONCERNING USE OF COURT FACILITIES, FILES, DOCUMENTS AND EXHIBITS IN TRIALS OR PROCEEDINGS HEARD BY A PRIVATE JUDGE

For the purposes of this local rule the term "private judge" includes any attorney or retired judge sitting as a judge pro tem arranged privately between the parties to the litigation. A private judge hearing, trial or proceeding is a hearing, trial or proceeding in which all expenses are born by the litigants.

A. Stipulation must include waiver of clerk's minutes: Any stipulation for private judge must include a waiver for the necessity of clerk's minutes. The presiding judge will not approve or allow the filing of the private judge's consent to serve or oath of office without the parties having first filed such a waiver.

B. Documents to be filed by the private judge: The private judge shall have the responsibility for filing with the clerk of the court, notices setting hearings, interim rulings, the statement of decision or final judgment and (where applicable) notices of any post trial proceedings.

C. In the event of appeal: The clerk of the court has the responsibility to provide the clerk's transcript and exhibits to the appellate court. Parties requesting a reporter's transcript shall have the responsibility to notify the reporter of a designation of the record or request for preparation of the reporter's transcript, and to submit these documents to the clerk of the court for filing with copies provided directly to the reporter. The parties are responsible for arranging transcript preparation, correction, certification, and filing with the Court of Appeal.

RULE 10.6 SANCTIONS FOR VIOLATIONS OF LOCAL RULES

Any unjustified failure to comply with the requirements of any local rule may result in the imposition of monetary sanctions, including the assessment of fines, court costs or attorney's fees against an offending attorney or party, or any other sanctions as determined by the court, including such non-monetary sanctions as issue preclusion, exclusion of evidence, the striking of pleadings and the dismissal of an action or cause of action. Monetary sanctions are payable to the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Placer. [Effective date 1/1/06]

RULE 10.7 SUBSECTION DELETED [Effective 7/1/2011]

RULE 10.8 EX PARTE ORDERS

The Court will not issue any orders on ex parte requests unless the order requested is necessary to prevent injustice, irreparable harm, immediate danger, or states a proper statutory basis for granting ex parte relief, and due to time constraints, a noticed motion cannot be made. Further, failure to timely request a noticed motion must not have been due to any failure or lack of diligence on the part of the requesting attorney or party. [Effective date 7/1/02]

All ex parte requests, including a request for orders shortening or extending time, for temporary relief or other requests will be heard only with a scheduled appointment except in cases of emergency. Appointments will be scheduled through the office of the clerk of the appropriate Court. On appearance, attorneys and/or parties requesting the order shall present a written application to the clerk of the Court accompanied by sufficient declarations and/or points and authorities to support the order, and the proposed order.

Notice shall be given to all parties within the time limits set forth in CRC 3.1203. All ex parte applications shall comply with CRC 3.1204 and must include a written declaration setting forth details of the notice given to other parties (date, time, place of notice, to whom notice was given) or why notice could not be given. In cases where less than 6 business hours notice is given, the declaration shall state facts to justify such shortened notice. Further, ex parte requests for continuance, pursuant to Rule 20.5, shall include a list of mutually agreeable proposed trial dates. [Effective date 7/1/07]

A. The Clerk of the Court shall adhere to the guidelines set forth herein in the acceptance and rejection of documents presented for filing.

C. All documents submitted for filing shall contain the submitting attorney's California State Bar Number as a part of the attorney's name, address and telephone number on the first page of all papers presented for filing; papers presented by pro per litigants shall contain the party's name, address and telephone number. [Effective date 7/1/07]

G. All documents must be typewritten, computer-printed or prepared by a photocopying or other duplication process according to CRC 2.104. H. Documents not received for filing within the statutory time limits, before a scheduled hearing, shall be filed and endorsed at the clerks office and an endorsed copy shall be delivered by the attorney or self-represented litigant to the courtroom where the hearing is scheduled. [Effective date 1/1/08]

I. Transcripts of depositions shall not be filed or lodged within the Court file without prior order of the Court. In civil cases, transcripts of Court proceedings, unless ordered prepared by the Court, will not be lodged within the Court file nor filed by the clerk without prior order of the Court.

J. Except for noncompliance with CRC 2.100 et seq, these local rules of Court, or failure to pay the filing fee without a Court order waiving the fee, a complaint must be filed on demand and cannot be refused. However, any obvious discrepancy will be pointed out to the filing party so that the error can be corrected prior to filing. Once filed, any corrections must proceed by amendment or Court order; a party cannot alter papers to correct mistakes once the complaint is filed with the Court. Unsigned complaints shall not be filed without Court order. [Effective date 7/1/07]

K. No answer or other responsive pleading shall be refused for filing except for:
(1) failure to pay the required filing fee without having obtained a waiver, (2) a violation of CRC 2.100 et seq or these local rules, or (3) lack of signature. [Effective date 7/1/07]

RULE 30.2 ~~CONFERENCE PRIOR TO DOMESTIC RELATIONS LAW~~ ~~AND MOTION MATTERS~~ MANDATORY MEET AND CONFER REQUIREMENTS

A. Meet and Confer Prior to Hearing

Except as provided elsewhere in these rules or by provision of law, upon service of an Order To Show Cause, a Notice of Motion, a Request for Order, or any other documents for which a hearing has been set, the parties and/or attorneys must contact each other before the date of the hearing and make at least one peaceable attempt to settle all of the issues of the hearing. Each party and attorney must make good faith, reasonable proposals on all issues, attempting actual settlement thereof. This settlement attempt may be in writing, by fax or e-mail, by telephone, or in person. If the issues include child support or temporary spousal support, the parties or attorneys must exchange DissoMaster™, Xspouse™ or such other computerized support calculations as authorized by statute and California Rules of Court, rule 5.275, as part of their settlement attempts. If after meeting and conferring, the parties or their attorneys both agree that the hearing is not necessary, both parties or attorneys must immediately notify the court. Failure to meet and confer as required herein may result in the matter being delayed, or postponed, or dropped from calendar, or sanctions or other remedies imposed in the court's discretion.

B. Meet and Confer on the Date of the Hearing

On the day of the hearing and prior to calling of the calendar, the parties and attorneys must meet and confer again to review the issues pending before the court, to inspect and exchange all relevant documents, and to exchange information in a good faith attempt to settle all of the issues of the hearing. They must also cooperate so as to clearly outline and efficiently present the settled and unsettled issues to the court at the hearing. Documents and information not exchanged prior to the hearing may not be considered by the court, in the court's discretion. Failure to meet and confer as required herein may result in the matter being delayed, or postponed, or dropped from calendar, or sanctions or other remedies imposed in the court's discretion.

C. Meet and Confer Rule for Parties Subject to Restraining Orders

This meet and confer rule does not require the parties themselves to meet and confer personally if there are any restraining orders, issued by any court whatsoever, requiring one party to “not contact” or “stay away” from any other party to the same action, if such restraining orders are in effect at the time of the law and motion proceeding. However, the parties’ attorneys, if any, must meet and confer as stated herein, and any party representing himself or herself must meet and confer with the opposing party’s attorney, if the opposing party is represented. At the hearing, the court may in its discretion order the parties themselves to meet and confer under conditions that the court deems appropriate.

D. This meet and confer rule does not apply, except as stated in the immediately preceding paragraph, to moving papers that are filed under or concern:

(i) The Domestic Violence Prevention Act (Family Code §§ 6200 – 6409, as plead in Judicial Council forms DV-100 through DV-810);

(ii) Civil harassment actions (Code of Civil Procedure § 527.6, as plead in Judicial Council forms CH-100 through CH-151);

(iii) Workplace violence (Code of Civil Procedure § 527.8, as plead in Judicial Council forms WV-100 through WV-150); or,

(iv) Elder or dependent adult abuse (Welfare and Institutions Code §15657.03, as plead in Judicial Council forms EA-100 through EA-150).

E. All litigants must be provided with the court’s standard form Meet And Confer Orders (Placer County Local Form no. PL-FL011) as in effect at the time of the proceeding, as said standard form may be amended from time to time. A copy of the standard form Meet and Confer Orders shall also be included in any moving papers served on a litigant in any family law matter.

F. This rule does not apply to moving papers that are filed by the Department of Child Support Services (“DCSS”), so long as the DCSS has and uses adequate “meet and confer” procedures of its own that meet the purposes of these mandatory meet and confer requirements as required by the assigned judicial officer for DCSS cases.

[Effective date 1/1/13]

When a minor child of any age is represented by counsel, the decision whether the child shall be informed of the lack of confidentiality shall be solely with counsel for the minor. 2. Where the other parent or party fails to participate in the evaluation process through his or her own fault;
3. Where the other parent or party engages in conduct which is obstructive, obnoxious, threatening toward the evaluator, or the other party has repeatedly canceled appointments and has not made himself or herself readily available for appointments;

5. When an evaluation of the other parent or party is unnecessary to resolve the issues before the Court.

Rule 40.5 is adopted in compliance with Penal Code section 1203.10 and County of Placer v. Superior Court (Stoner) (2005) 130 Cal.App.4th 807, to define the process used to discover non-confidential contents of a defendant's criminal case file maintained by the Placer County Probation Department.

A. A defendant shall have the right to discover the non-confidential portions of his or her criminal case file(s) maintained by the Placer County Probation Department under the following circumstances:

1. The defendant must be pending either new criminal charges or a violation of probation.

2. The procedures in this rule apply only to the discovery of adult criminal files. The procedure for discovery of juvenile case files will be as defined in Welfare and Institutions Code section 827.

 2. The probation department will have three (3) days to review the file to determine whether any of the requested information is confidential to the defendant and should not be disclosed.
 3. The file(s) will be made available for review at the offices of the Placer County Probation Department, unless otherwise agreed by the parties.
 4. The probation department will copy any non-confidential portions of the file(s) as requested by the defendant. The defendant shall pay for the copies at the rate authorized by Placer County code.

If either the probation department or the defendant disagrees with the Court's decision, such party may seek appropriate appellate review.
- C. Nothing in this rule shall be construed to limit the obligation of the Placer County Probation Department to disclose material that is exculpatory in nature.

4. A current appraisal of the property performed by a certified real estate appraiser. The appraiser shall include a statement of the appraiser's training and experience.
5. Statements from all lien holders having liens against the property, showing the amount presently due on the obligation.

C. The Court may require additional evidence in order to ascertain the true equity in the property held by the applicants. All costs incurred to process the property bond and to comply with this Rule shall be borne by the applicant.

D. If the Court approves the property bond, the applicant shall record the deed of trust and then shall deliver to the Clerk the following documents:

1. The original signed promissory note.
2. Copy of the deed of trust showing its recorded status. The original deed of trust shall be returned by mail from the recorder's office to the Clerk.

EXHIBIT B

RULE 40.7 DECLARATION OF CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

The following rule is to guide the Court and counsel regarding the circumstances under which a conflict of interest is to be declared concerning the representation of a criminal defendant.

A. Application of the Rule: The conflicts rule shall be applicable to declarations of conflict by any appointed counsel, whether such counsel is the Placer County Public Defender, Conflicts Firm, or private attorney appointed by the Court.

B. Construction of Rule: Whenever possible, consistent with legal ethics and the fundamental right of any criminal defendant to be represented by counsel who is free of conflicts of interest, this rule shall be liberally construed to avoid a declaration of conflict so as to give full and appropriate effect to contractual arrangements between the County of Placer and appointed counsel.

C. Multiple Defendant Cases:

1. Counsel appointed by the Court shall not represent different defendants involved in the same or related criminal conduct, whether or not the defendants are separately or jointly charged.
2. Privately retained counsel shall not represent multiple defendants charged in the same criminal proceeding unless a full and knowledgeable waiver is obtained from each defendant in writing and orally in open court after inquiry by the Court.
3. Declarations of conflict in multiple defendant cases may be made by any attorney without the prior approval of a supervising attorney.
4. Whenever a conflict is declared, to the extent possible, the Public Defender shall retain the client having the more serious or complex case from that of the Conflicts Firm; the Conflicts Firm shall retain the client having the more serious or complex case from that of private appointed counsel.

D. Conflicts with Current Clients:

1. Counsel appointed by the Court shall not represent a defendant where an adverse witness or victim is a client currently being represented by such counsel. For the purposes of this rule, “currently being represented” means:
 - a. A client who has an active, pending charge or violation of probation,
 - b. A defendant for whom counsel is actively seeking post- judgment relief, or
 - c. Counsel currently is counsel of record for a minor in a juvenile delinquency or dependency proceeding, whether or not there currently is a pending petition in such juvenile proceeding.

2. Absent unusual circumstances, the fact that counsel represents a witness supporting the defendant will not disqualify counsel from representing the defendant.

3. A declaration of conflict under this section shall require the approval of a senior or supervising attorney.

E. Former Clients as Witnesses or Victims:

1. A declaration of conflict shall not be made merely from the fact that a former client is a victim or witness in the current action.

2. A declaration of conflict may be made if all of the following circumstances are present:

a. Counsel is in possession of confidential information concerning the former client. "Confidential information" does not include information that is part of the public record or may readily be obtained by opposing counsel, such as records of conviction, employment and school records.

b. The confidential information is relevant to the current proceeding.

c. Counsel will or may be called upon to use the confidential information against the former client in the defense of the client in the current case.

3. A declaration of conflict under this section shall require the approval of a senior or supervising attorney.

(a) Declaration of Conflict in Other Circumstances:

(1) Merely because a conflict existed in the past does not mean that there is a conflict in the current case. Each case is to be evaluated as to current conflicts. It is presumed, for example, that the Public Defender shall represent a defendant on a current probation violation, even though there had been a conflict in representation on the original case.

(2) Counsel may declare a conflict in the following additional cases:

aa. Where there is a substantial appearance of conflict. Examples of such circumstances include former clients who were frequently represented by counsel, or cases where the former client has had a recent and substantial case with counsel.

bb. Where a witness or victim is a member of the office staff of counsel or a member of such staff's family. Merely having knowledge of or acquaintance with the witness or victim shall not be grounds for a declaration of conflict of the entire office of counsel, but may warrant re-assignment of the case within counsel's firm.

cc. Where a former client seeks to set aside a conviction and there is a colorable claim of ineffective assistance of counsel. "Colorable claim" means one which would credibly establish the possibility that the prior counsel had failed to perform with reasonable diligence and that, in absence of counsel's failings, the conviction would not have resulted. The colorability of the claim may be determined in a procedure generally in the style of a Marsden motion.

dd. Suit against counsel by the current client unless the suit is patently frivolous, the suit is based on grounds already determined by the Court in a Marsden motion to be without merit, and there is no conflict of interest other than as reflected in the suit. (People v. Horton (1995) 11 Cal.4th 1068, 1104-1107.)

ee. Any other circumstance where counsel reasonable believes a conflict should be declared.

(3) A declaration of conflict under this section shall require the approval of a senior or supervising attorney.

F. When a conflict is declared:

1. Conflicts shall be declared as soon as discovered.
2. Notice of the declaration of conflict made by the Public Defender shall be immediately given to the Conflicts Firm, including a brief explanation of the nature of the conflict.
3. Counsel shall safeguard any confidential information obtained from a client to avoid any unnecessary "contamination" of other counsel.
4. The file, absent any confidential information, shall promptly be given to the next appointed counsel. The following procedure shall be used when conflicts are discovered in cases in any department: If the conflict is declared in open court with Conflicts counsel present, the file shall be exchanged in open court. If Conflicts counsel is not present, the file shall be deposited in a box for that purpose located in the clerk's office for the department. (Effective 7/1/08)
5. Whenever a conflict appears possible, particularly in a multiple defendant cases, counsel will conduct themselves in a manner to minimize conflicts in any realignment of counsel.

6. When a conflict is declared, the new attorney generally will assume representation of the client in all pending matters, even though no conflict exists as to the other matters.

The Court shall inquire into the circumstances of the conflict, including, if necessary, holding proceedings in camera. Counsel, however, shall not be required to disclose confidential information, even to the Court. [Effective date 7/1/08]

RULE 40.8 EXPENSES OF DEFENSE

At the conclusion of the case, or upon discharge of counsel, counsel shall state to the Court the total number of hours spent on the case, if court appointed, and any expenses paid by public funds as costs, investigation, expert witness fees, and analysis of evidence. [Effective date 7/1/01]

50.00 JUVENILE COURT RULES

RULE 50.1 AUTHORITY

All Standing Orders relating to juvenile matters issued by the Placer County Juvenile Court prior to the effective date of these local rules are hereby rescinded except such standing Orders as are attached to these local rules as an Appendix. The Court may hereafter issue new or amended Standing Orders by filing same with the Clerk of the Juvenile Court. [Effective date 7/1/01]

RULE 50.3 GENERAL COMPETENCY REQUIREMENT

All attorneys appearing in juvenile dependency proceedings must meet minimum standards of competence set forth in these rules. These rules are applicable to attorneys employed by public agencies, attorneys appointed by the Court to represent any party in juvenile dependency proceeding and attorneys who are privately retained to represent a party to a juvenile dependency proceeding. [Effective date 7/1/01]

RULE 50.4 SCREENING FOR COMPETENCY

A. Effective January 1, 1997, all attorneys who represent parties in Juvenile Court dependency proceedings shall meet the minimum standards of training and/or experience set forth in these rules. Each attorney of record for a party to a dependency matter pending before the Court on January 1, 1997 who believes he or she meets the minimum standards of competency shall complete and submit to the Court, on or before January 31, 1997, a Certification of Competency as set forth in Appendix A to these rules. After January 1, 1997, any attorney appearing in a dependency matter for the first time shall complete and submit a Certification of Competency to the Court within ten (10) days of his or her first appearance in a dependency matter.

B. Attorneys who meet the minimum standards of training and/or experience as set forth in Rule 50.5, as demonstrated by the information contained in the Certification of Competency submitted to the Court, shall be deemed competent to practice before the Juvenile Court in dependency cases except as provided in subdivision c of this rule.

C. Upon submission of a Certification of Competency which demonstrates that the attorney has met the minimum standards for training and/or experience, the Court may determine, based on conduct or performance of counsel before the Court in a dependency case within the six (6) month period prior to the submission of the certification to the Court, that a particular attorney does not meet minimum competency standards. In such case, the Court shall proceed as set forth in Rule 50.7 hereinafter.

D. Any attorney appearing before the Court in a dependency case pending on January 1, 1997 who does not meet the minimum standards of training or experience shall notify the Court to that effect and shall have until April 30, 1997 to complete the minimum number of hours of training required to fulfill the requirements of these rules. If the attorney fails to complete such training, the Court shall order, except in cases where a party is represented by retained counsel, that certified counsel be substituted for the attorney who fails to complete the required training. In the case of retained counsel, the Court shall notify the party that his or her counsel has failed to meet the minimum standards required by these rules. The determination whether to obtain substitute private counsel shall be solely within the discretion of the party so notified.

[Effective date 7/1/01]

RULE 50.5 MINIMUM STANDARDS OF EDUCATION AND TRAINING

A. Each attorney appearing in a dependency matter before the Juvenile Court shall not seek certification of competency and shall not be certified by the Court as competent until the attorney has completed the following minimum training and educational requirements. 2. At least six (6) months of experience in dependency proceedings in which the attorney has demonstrated competence in the attorney's representation of his or her clients in said proceedings. In determining whether the attorney has demonstrated competence, the Court shall consider whether the attorney's performance has substantially complied with the requirements of these rules.

B. In order to retain his or her certification to practice before the Juvenile Court, each attorney who has been previously certified by the Court shall submit a new Certificate of Competency to the Court on or before January 31st of the third year after the year in which the attorney is first certified and then every third year thereafter. The attorney shall attach to the renewal Certification of Competency evidence that he or she has completed at least eight (8) hours of continuing training or education directly related to dependency proceedings since the attorney was last certified. Evidence of completion of the required number of hours of training or education may include a copy of a certificate of attendance issued by a California MCLE provider; a certificate of attendance issued by a professional organization which provides training and/or education for its members, whether or not it is a MCLE provider; a copy of the training or educational program schedule together with evidence of attendance at such program; or such other documentation as may reasonably be considered to demonstrate the attorney's attendance at such program. Attendance at a court sponsored or approved program will also fulfill this requirement.

C. The attorney's continuing training or education shall be in the areas set forth in subdivision (1)(a) of this rule, or in other areas related to juvenile dependency practice including, but not limited to, special education, mental health, health care, immigration issues, the rules of evidence, adoption practice and parentage issues, the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act, the Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act, state and federal public assistance programs, the Indian Child Welfare Act, client interviewing and counseling techniques, case investigation and settlement negotiations, mediation, basic motion practice and the rules of civil procedure.

D. When a certified attorney fails to submit evidence that he or she has completed at least the minimum required training and education to the Court by the due date, the Court shall notify the attorney that he or she will be decertified. The attorney shall have twenty (20) days from the date of the mailing of the notice to submit evidence of his or her completion of the required training or education. If the attorney fails to submit the required evidence or fails to complete the required minimum hours of continuing training or education, the Court shall order, except in cases where a party is represented by retained counsel, that certified be substituted for the attorney who fails to complete the required training. In the case of retained counsel, the Court shall notify the party that his or her counsel has failed to meet the minimum standards required by these rules. The determination whether to obtain substitute counsel shall be solely within the discretion of the party so notified. [Effective date 7/1/01]

RULE 50.6 STANDARDS OF REPRESENTATION

All attorneys appearing in dependency proceedings shall meet the following minimum standards of representation:

A. The attorney shall thoroughly and completely investigate the accuracy of the allegations of the petition or other moving papers and the court reports filed in support thereof. This shall include conducting a comprehensive interview with the client to ascertain his or her knowledge and/or involvement in the matters alleged or reported; contacting social workers and other professionals associated with the case to ascertain if the allegations and/or reports are supported by accurate facts and reliable information; consulting with and, if necessary, seeking the appointment of experts to advise the attorney or the Court with respect to matters which are beyond the expertise of the attorney and/or the Court; and obtaining such other facts, evidence or information, as may be necessary to effectively present the client's position to the Court.

B. The attorney shall determine the client's interests and the position the client wishes to take in the matter. Except in those cases in which the client's whereabouts is unknown, this shall include a comprehensive interview with the client. If the client is a minor child who is placed out of home, in addition to interviewing the child, the attorney shall also interview the child's caretaker.

C. The attorney shall advise the client of the possible courses of action and of the risks and benefits of each. This shall include advising the client of the risks and benefits of resolving disputed matters without the necessity for a hearing and of the necessity for adhering to court mandated time limits.

D. The attorney shall vigorously represent the child within applicable legal and ethical boundaries. This shall include the duty to work cooperatively with other counsel and the Court, to explore ways to resolve disputed matters without hearing if it is possible to do so in a way which is consistent with the client's interests, and to comply with local rules and procedures as well as with statutorily mandated timelines. [Effective date 7/1/01]

RULE 50.7 PROCEDURES FOR REVIEWING AND RESOLVING COMPLAINTS

A. Any party to a Juvenile Court proceeding may lodge a written complaint with the court concerning the performance of his or her appointed attorney in a Juvenile Court proceeding. B. The Court shall review a complaint within ten (10) days of receipt. If the Court determines that the complaint presents reasonable cause to believe that the attorney may have failed to act competently or has violated local rules, the Court shall notify the attorney in question of the complaint, shall provide the attorney with a copy of the complaint and shall give the attorney twenty (20) days from the date of the notice to respond to the complaint in writing.

C. After a response has been filed by the attorney of the time for a submission of a response has passed, the Court shall review the complaint and the response if any to determine whether the attorney acted contrary to local rules or has acted incompetently. The Court may ask the complainant or the attorney for additional information prior to making a determination on the complaint.

D. If, after reviewing the complaint, the response and any additional information, the Court finds that the attorney acted contrary to the rules of the Court, the Court may reprove the attorney, either privately or publicly, and may, in cases of willful or egregious violations of local rules, issue such reasonable monetary sanctions against the attorney as the Court may deem appropriate.

E. If, after reviewing the complaint, the response and any additional information, the Court finds that the attorney acted incompetently, the Court may order that the attorney practice under the supervision of a mentor attorney for a period of at least six (6) months, that the attorney complete a specified number of hours of training or education in the area in which the attorney's conduct caused actual harm to his or her client, the Court shall order that competent counsel be substituted for the attorney found to have been incompetent and may, in the Court's discretion, refer the matter to the State Bar of California for further action.

F. The Court shall notify the attorney and the complaining party in writing of its determination of the complaint. If the Court makes a finding under subdivisions (e) or (f), the attorney shall have ten (10) days after the date of the notice to request a hearing before the Court concerning the Court's determination shall become final.

No new evidence may be presented unless the party offering such evidence can show that it was not reasonably available to the party at the time that the Court made its initial determination with respect to the complaint. Within ten (10) days after the hearing, the Court or hearing officer shall issue a written determination upholding, reversing or amending the Court's original determination. The hearing decision shall be the final determination of the Court with respect to the matter. A copy of the hearing decision shall be provided to both the complainant and the attorney. STANDING ORDER OF THE
JUVENILE COURT

JOHN MENDES
EXECUTIVE OFFICER & CLERK
By [Signature] Deputy

No. 02-002

In the matter of Robert S. v. Superior Court, (1992) Cal. App. 4th 1417 the California Supreme Court determined that discovery in delinquency proceedings should parallel that in criminal cases and that the juvenile courts have inherent discretionary power to permit such discovery. This Court finds that the need for expeditious and fair adjudications in juvenile court may be facilitated by a standing reciprocal discovery order. The purpose of the standing order is ascertainment of truth, facilitation of trial preparation, prevention of surprise and delay at time of trial, savings in court time, and the avoidance of interruption and postponement of trial.

IT IS THEREFORE THE ORDER OF THIS COURT THAT in addition to the provisions of California Rule of Court 1420 all parties shall comply with the reciprocal discovery standards delineated in Penal Code section 1054 et seq..
